

Addressing the LGBTQ Community's Spiritual and Mental Health

BRP was pleased to promote and participate in a Community Conversation on June 2nd, held at Temple Beth El. Sponsored by Ruth & Norman Rales JFS, the event focused on ways to create a more inclusive and welcoming environment for LGBTQ individuals of all ages and their families.

A panel discussion, facilitated by Randi Adler, LCSW, LGBTQ Program Director, Jewish Community Services of South Florida, provided insights and perspectives from Rabbi Daniel Levin, CBI Rabbi Marci Bloch, musician Brett Lowenstern, Temple Sinai Rabbi Greg Kantor, and Ashley Giannangeli, sponsor of a Gay-Straight Alliance Club at a local high school.

Above Left: City Council member Robert Weinroth in center with event planners and panelists.

Above Right: Panelists from left are Rabbis Greg Kanter, Marci Bloch and Dan Levin; Brett Lowenstern; Ashley Giannangeli and Randi Adler.

Event Sponsor:

